Peaches as Medicine.

Peaches as a medicine seem rather odd, but it is a fact corroborated by physicians, that peaches are both food and medicine. "Peaches are a tonic, an aperient, a food and a drink combined," says the esteemed contemporary. They aid the digestion. They reduce the redness of the nose. They are good for biliousness- They aid the blood and improve the complexion. Peaches were never better or sweeter or cheaper than they are now. Feast upon them while you can .- Centerville Observer.
